

Belgrade (Beograd = white city) is the capital of Serbia, and has a population of around 1.6 million. It is situated at the confluence of the Sava and Danube rivers. It is one of the oldest cities in Europe and has since ancient times been an important focal point for traffic, an intersection of the roads of Eastern and Western Europe.