- 8:00 Departure
- 11:00 Hellas Aluminium
- 14:00 Lunch
- 16:00 Delfi
- 18:00 Nafpaktos

Since you've already seen many places in Peloponnese and Zakynthos, time to "taste" central Greece too.

Delfoi

Delfoi was the site of the most important oracle in ancient Greece. The temple itself was built on a verdant hillside on the southern slope of Mt. Parnassus and was consecrated to a central figure in the Greek pantheon: Apollo, the god of light, the sun and prophecy.

When people of all social standing, both rulers and their subjects, faced problems in their lives and futures, they would travel to the mountain to consult the great oracle at Delfoi. On arrival they would be greeted by Pythia, a prophetess inspired by Apollo, who would respond to the questions asked. In this way people found vital and necessary answers to their problems and gained greater confidence in their own futures.

Rio

Here is the port that connects Peloponnese with the rest of Greece. A bridge is currently under construction, scheduled to be finished in 2004. At present there are ferry-boats serving the strait crossing but the bridge shall provide a permanent link reducing crossing time significantly. The bridge will facilitate communication between Greece

Wednesday, 6/8 – Melpomene, muse of tragedy

Schedule

- 9:00 Breakfast
- 10:00 Departure for
Kalogria Beach
- 11:00 Swimming
- 13:00 Lunch
- 19:00 Tragedy evening
- 22:00 Dinner
Goodbye party

Muse Melpomene is the Muse of tragedy. Her name loosely translates to "choir" and she is named because of her chanting with which charms her listeners.

Before the big evening tonight, we're going to have a lot of fun by the sea!

Kalogria Beach

One more beautiful sandy beach – and maybe the most popular in the area – is Kalogria. With its warm waters it's ideal for swimming also in the spring and attracts a lot of visitors. But this is not all.

To reach the coast you must pass through the Strofilia pine forest, the most extended forest of this kind in Greece.

It is a protected area with great ecological interest, as a lot of rare species inhabit in the forest.

Friday, 7/8 – Departure day...

So ...that's all folks!!

Summer moves on and the unknown future lies ahead of us unexplored full of challenges and surprises...let's hope that each one of us will have to remember vivid exclusive and unique moments from this SU event...

Our ship has cruised through many places and many experiences and memories will accompany us back home, having enriched (we hope) our past...

Let's leave the rest to the poet....

When you set out on your journey to Ithaca,
pray that the road is long,
full of adventure, full of knowledge.
The Lestrygonians and the Cyclops,
the angry Poseidon -- do not fear them:
You will never find such as these on your path,
if your thoughts remain lofty, if a fine
emotion touches your spirit and your body.
The Lestrygonians and the Cyclops,
the fierce Poseidon you will never encounter,
if you do not carry them within your soul,
if your soul does not set them up before you.

Pray that the road is long.
That the summer mornings are many, when,
with such pleasure, with such joy
you will enter ports seen for the first time;
stop at Phoenician markets,
and purchase fine merchandise,
mother-of-pearl and coral, amber and ebony,

and sensual perfumes of all kinds,
as many sensual perfumes as you can;
visit many Egyptian cities,
to learn and learn from scholars.

Always keep Ithaca in your mind.
To arrive there is your ultimate goal.
But do not hurry the voyage at all.
It is better to let it last for many years;
and to anchor at the island when you are old,
rich with all you have gained on the way,
not expecting that Ithaca will offer you riches.

Ithaca has given you the beautiful voyage.
Without her you would have never set out on the road.
She has nothing more to give you.
And if you find her poor, Ithaca has not deceived you.
Wise as you have become, with so much experience,
you must already have understood what Ithacas mean.

"Ithaca", Constantine P. Cavafis (1911)

Best wishes for a wonderful “journey of life”,

AEGEE - Patra
